"The best part of being a season ticketholder is that we get to see NBA basketball games up close and we get to have some quality family time...I can say that we have had excellent advisors since we started as season ticketholders for they are very helpful and work with us to improve our seats every year. I would like to say thanks for all the hard work that the Pollins, the staff, and the players do to make such a wonderful evening for my family."
